5. Cookies and Similar Technologies

The Site is hosted on Wix, which uses cookies and similar technologies that are necessary for functions such as security, network management, shopping and checkout, and other Site features. Depending on the features and applications enabled on the Site, additional cookies may be used for analytics, functionality, or marketing.

Where required by law, non-essential cookies are used only in accordance with the choices presented through the Site's cookie or privacy controls. You can also manage cookies through your browser settings, although blocking necessary cookies may affect Site functionality.

6. How We Disclose Personal Information

We may disclose personal information only as reasonably necessary for the purposes described in this policy, including to:

- Wix and service providers that host the Site, process orders or payments, deliver digital products, provide analytics, maintain security, send communications, or support business operations.
- Professional advisors, such as accountants, attorneys, or consultants, when reasonably necessary and subject to appropriate confidentiality obligations.
- Government authorities, courts, regulators, or other parties when disclosure is required by law or reasonably necessary to protect rights, safety, security, or the integrity of the Site.
- A successor or prospective successor in connection with a merger, sale, reorganization, financing, or transfer of all or part of the business, subject to applicable legal requirements.

We do not sell personal information for money. Some analytics or advertising technologies, if enabled, may be considered "sharing," "sale," or "targeted advertising" under certain privacy laws even when no money is exchanged. Where applicable, we provide consent or opt-out controls through the Site's privacy tools and honor legally required opt-out signals.

7. Legal Bases for Processing

Where data-protection law requires a legal basis, we process personal information as necessary to perform a contract or take steps you request before entering a contract; for legitimate interests such as operating, securing, and improving the Site; to comply with legal obligations; and, where required, based on your consent. You may withdraw consent where processing is based on consent, without affecting processing that occurred before withdrawal.

8. Data Retention

We retain personal information only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes described in this policy, including to complete transactions, provide support, maintain business and tax records, resolve disputes, enforce agreements, and comply with law. Retention periods vary based on the type of information and the reason it is processed.

9. Data Security

We use reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational measures designed to protect personal information. The Site is hosted on the Wix platform and relies on Wix and other service providers for portions of its infrastructure and security. No online system or method of transmission can be guaranteed to be completely secure, and we cannot promise absolute security.

10. Your Privacy Rights and Choices

Depending on where you live and subject to applicable exceptions, you may have the right to request access to personal information we hold about you, correct inaccurate information, delete information, obtain a portable copy, withdraw consent, or opt out of certain targeted advertising, sale, sharing, or profiling activities. You may also have the right not to receive discriminatory treatment for exercising a privacy right.

To submit a privacy request, use the Contact page at <https://www.moriamseriki.com/contact> and identify the request as a "Privacy Request." We may need to verify your identity before completing certain requests. Authorized agents may submit requests where permitted by law, subject to verification requirements.

You can unsubscribe from promotional emails using the unsubscribe link in the message. Service or transaction communications may still be sent when necessary to complete a purchase or respond to a request.

Where required by applicable law, we will honor recognized browser-based opt-out preference signals, such as Global Privacy Control, when the Site technology is capable of receiving and applying the signal to the relevant processing.

11. Children's Privacy

The Site is directed to adults and business users and is not intended for children under 16. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 16 through the Site. If you believe a child has provided personal information, contact us so we can review and, where appropriate, delete it.
